Continence Quiz

True or False:

1. UI is inevitable with age. T F
2. There is only one type of UI. T F
3. There are no effective treatments for UI. It is unavoidable in nursing home residents. T F
4. UI falls under the purview of physicians. Nurses can’t do much to help. T F
5. UI is unmanageable in people with dementia. T F
6. Complete continence is the only indication of successful treatment. T F
7. Older adults don’t mind being incontinent and wearing pads. T F
8. Indwelling catheters are the best intervention for intractable UI. T F
9. It is possible to prevent urinary incontinence. T F

Developed for use in practice by Kelly Kruse APRN-BC, MS, Continence Consultant, UroGyn Consultations, LLC. (608) 437-6035.